Charmingly unique Portland hotels reflect the city’s progressive and creative outlook on life. Here are cool, quirky, and unusual hotels.

Inn @ Northrup Station
2025 NW Northrup St

The Inn at Northrup Station, located in the Northwest district, is an all-suites boutique known for its bright, quirky retro hip decor. The lobby features a hot pink, studded front desk lit by funky lamps, and the breakfast area is a scramble of bright, striped furniture. The spacious suites have abstract local art, and everything from the walls to the bedding to the couches is bold in color.
Kennedy School
5736 NE 33rd Ave
Since its 1915 opening, this historic elementary school has been a beloved fixture of its Northeast Portland neighborhood. McMenamins renovated the once-abandoned scholastic gem and turned it into Portland’s most unique hotel. Half of its 57 individually designed boutique rooms maintain their original classroom character and the other half sport literary themes. Extensive original artwork and historical photographs cover the walls, ceilings, doorways, and hallways. You’ll find a restaurant, brewery, multiple small bars, a movie theater, and a soaking pool.

The Nines, a Luxury Collection Hotel
525 SW Morrison
The Nines is a 5-star hotel ideally situated in downtown Portland, steps from Pioneer Courthouse Square. There is a rooftop bar with terrific views, two restaurants (even locals enjoy), and beautiful artwork. NBA and MLS teams stay here when playing the Portland Blazers or Timbers.

Ace Hotel
1022 SW Harvey Milk Rd
Based in a historic building in downtown Portland, the highly-rated Ace Hotel is close to all the sites and on plenty of public transport links. The spacious rooms are lovingly decorated by local artists. Chic, funky, and affordable.

AirBnB Portland UP is located in the University Park neighborhood. Nearby neighborhoods include St. Johns, Arbor Lodge, Kenton, Overlook, and Mississippi.
