

Overseas Course Evaluation for UP Equivalency Study Abroad Programs

Program Name:

Program Length:

Program Course Title:
Criteria for Review	Yes/No	Comments - If no, does that limit your ability to equate the course for credit?
The academic content listed for the overseas course is equivalent to (or consistent with) the required academic content for courses in the department.	Yes No
The learning outcomes listed for the overseas course is equivalent to the required learning outcomes for courses in the department.	Yes No
The Course Requirements (exams, assignments, papers, etc.) listed for the overseas course is equivalent to the Course Requirements for courses in the department.	Yes No
The Required Texts and/or Required Reading List listed for the overseas course is equivalent to the Required Texts and/or Required Reading List for courses in the department.	Yes No
The Method of Evaluation (exams, assignments, papers, etc.) listed for the overseas course is equivalent to the Method of Evaluation for courses in the department.	Yes No
<input type="checkbox"/> This course is acceptable for credit in our department for the following credit(s): DEPT _____ Course # _____ Number of Credits _____ DEPT _____ Course # _____ Number of Credits _____ <input type="checkbox"/> This course is acceptable, but will not count for major requirements. <input type="checkbox"/> This course is not acceptable for credit in our department. Reasons:

The review and articulation process of courses taken overseas is an important step in assuring that UP is upholding the NWCCU POLICY for CONTRACTS FOR EDUCATION-RELATED SERVICES. CISGO is charged with providing academic oversight for Study Abroad Programming, while each Academic Department is charged with the specific course review and credit articulation. For additional information, please refer to <https://www.up.edu/cisgo/index.html>

Evaluated By	Position	Department
Date sent by Study Abroad	Please return by

Additional information on the course articulation process can be found on the Study Abroad website.