I have given numerous public lectures and led group discussions and mini-courses that are related to my scholarly expertise and interests. These lectures and discussions serve the wider community insofar as they assist in educational updating of people outside of the University and bring the University into dialogue with the general public. Please see "Lectures" for a listing of my professional work done in service to the wider community.

CONTINUING EDUCATION AND ADDITIONAL FACULTY DEVELOPMENT

I have audited the following courses for the purpose of developing leadership and administrative skills for ongoing growth and development in my specific professional area of Higher Education, and for the purpose of becoming more skilled in my gift of being a visionary and transformative member-leader of professional boards on which I am privileged to serve.
