

GARAVENTA CENTER EVENTS FALL 2019

SEPTEMBER

Wednesday, September 11
7:15pm, Chiles Center

Annual Zahm Lecture: "Wisdom & Knowledge"

Author Marilynne Robinson, winner of the Pulitzer Prize and National Humanities Medal, will offer the 2019 Zahm Lecture, launching the academic year.

Tuesday, September 24
7:15pm, Franz Hall 120

The Cross and the Crucifix in Visual Art through the Ages

Notre Dame Professor of Theology Robin Jensen explores depictions of the Holy Cross and Christ's Passion in the history of Christian art.

OCTOBER

Wednesday, October 9
7pm, Mago Hunt Recital Hall

Fr. Claude Pomerleau Memorial Concert Series: Andreas Klein

Globally acclaimed pianist Andreas Klein performs a free recital entitled "Bach, Beethoven and Beyond" in honor of the Beethoven Anniversary Season.

Tuesday, October 22
7:15pm, Franz Hall 120

Pray to Love: the Visitation Nuns of Annecy

Photographer and painter Anne Goetze tells the story behind her artwork depicting the lives of the Visitation Nuns in Annecy, France.

Wednesday, October 23
7pm, Mago Hunt Recital Hall

Fr. Claude Pomerleau Memorial Concert Series: Carl DuPont

Widely celebrated bass-baritone Dr. Carl DuPont of the Peabody Conservatory, whose academic research focuses on transformative inclusion in higher music education, offers a free recital of art song by African-American composers, accompanied by pianist Gregory Thompson.

Wednesday, October 30
7:15pm, Franz Hall 120

The Biology of Zombies and Other Parasitic Tales: A Beckman Humor Project event

Dr. Ryan Kenton of UP Biology dives into the world of actual parasitic wasps, worms, and fungus that have been found to turn thousands of other species into assorted forms of "zombies!"

NOVEMBER

Tuesday, November 5
7:15pm, Franz Hall 120

Walking with Two Feet of Love: Following in the Footsteps of Dorothy Day to End Homelessness

Dr. Linda Plitt Donaldson of James Madison University examines the life of Dorothy Day and focuses on evidence-based practices to end homelessness. Co-sponsored by the Garaventa Center and UP Social Work.

Monday, November 11
2pm, Buckley Peace Garden

Prayers for Peace

Join with UP students, faculty and staff to offer public calls for peace in multiple languages. Co-sponsored by the Garaventa Center and International Student Services.

DECEMBER

Thursday, December 12
12:35pm after noon Mass
Chapel of Christ the Teacher

Advent Visio Divina

Visio Divina is an ancient form of Christian prayer in which we allow our hearts and imaginations to enter into a sacred illumination from The Saint John's Bible, in silence, to see what God might have to say to us. Co-sponsored by the Garaventa Center and Campus Ministry.

Pre-Play Reception & Panel

All ticket holders are invited to enjoy complimentary wine, cheese & desserts as campus experts highlight what to look and listen for.

Inventing Van Gogh by Stephen Dietz
Saturday, October 5

The Penelopiad by Margaret Atwood
Saturday, November 16

Reception 6:15pm Mago Hunt Lobby
Panel 6:45pm Mago Hunt Recital Hall
Play 7:30pm Main Stage

For play tickets:
Mago Hunt Box Office 503-943-7287

Thirst Friday

This popular social is open to all staff and faculty. Enjoy wine, laughter and great conversation!

Friday, September 20 & December 6
4-6pm, Franz Hall 330

Faith & Intellectual Life Discussion

All readings are posted at
up.edu/garaventa/fildg

Friday, September 13 & November 8
3:30-5:00pm

Held in Murphy Conference Room,
Fourth Floor Franz Hall

All events are free and open to the public.
For updates and podcasts: 503-943-7702 or up.edu/garaventa

GARAVENTA CENTER EVENTS SPRING 2020

FEBRUARY

Wednesday, February 5

7pm, Mago Hunt Recital Hall

The Undertaking

An interdisciplinary blend of music, movement and theatrical storytelling portraying the end-of-life care of an elder using Dmitri Shostakovich's Piano Trio No. 2, played live by Northwest Piano Trio. Co-sponsored by Performing & Fine Arts and the Beckman Humor Project.

Monday, February 10

7pm, Buckley Auditorium

ReadUP Schoenfeldt Lecture

Acclaimed author Lisa Ko speaks on her novel The Leavers, culminating the annual ReadUP event. Discussion groups listed at up.edu/readup.

Tuesday, February 11

7:15pm, Brian Doyle Auditorium
(Dundon-Berchtold 004)

Why Theology Needs Marie Kondo: A Beckman Humor Project event

UP senior theology student Andrew Plasker will offer a humorous look at what Marie Kondo's passion for tidying can offer the field of theology.

Tuesday, February 18

7:15pm, Franz Hall 120

The Relation Between Revolution and Religion:

The Case of the French Revolution of 1789 and French Catholicism

MIT Professor of History Jeffrey Ravel explores the role of religion in watershed historical events and its relevance in global politics today.

MARCH

Thursday, March 12

7:15pm, Brian Doyle Auditorium
(Dundon-Berchtold 004)

Poetry Reading with GC Waldrep

Celebrated poet GC Waldrep reads select passages from his work and unpacks connections between his faith and his art. Co-sponsored by the Garaventa Center and UP English.

Wednesday, March 18

7:15pm, Bauccio Commons

Reading the Bible Disruptively for Gender Justice in an Authoritarian Age

Susanne Scholz, Professor of Old Testament at Southern Methodist University, asks whether gendered Bible readings constitute viable intellectual alternatives to transform contemporary structures of domination. Co-sponsored by UP's Garaventa Center, CAS, Catholic Studies Program, Theology department and several more.

Saturday, March 21 at 7pm,

Chapel of Christ the Teacher

Concert with Bernadette Farrell

Renowned liturgical musician Bernadette Farrell offers a social justice themed concert of her songs for worship, including beloved favorites such as "Christ, Be Our Light." Co-sponsored by the Garaventa Center, Campus Ministry, and International Education, Diversity & Inclusion.

Wednesday, March 25

7:15pm, Brian Doyle Auditorium
(Dundon-Berchtold 004)

"So a Priest and a Cognitive Psychologist Walk Into a Bar...": A Beckman Humor Project event

Dr. Marianne Lloyd of Seton Hall University and Fr. Kevin Grove, CSC, of Notre Dame examine the intersections of psychology and theology in humor and memory, and how both can make life and prayer more meaningful and enjoyable.

APRIL

Tuesday, April 7

7:15pm, Franz Hall 120

This I Believe: A Conversation about Personal Axioms

A student open mic night with UP's Real Analysis students. Part of the Dundon-Berchtold Applied Ethics Initiative.

Wednesday, April 8

12:35pm after noon Mass
Chapel of Christ the Teacher

Lenten Visio Divina

Spend 30 minutes during Holy Week in this ancient meditative prayer form, contemplating a sacred image from The Saint John's Bible. Co-sponsored by the Garaventa Center and Campus Ministry.

All events are free and open to the public.
For updates and podcasts: 503-943-7702 or up.edu/garaventa

Pre-Play Reception & Panel

All ticket holders are invited to enjoy complimentary wine, cheese & desserts as campus experts highlight what to look and listen for.

The Dragon by Lady Gregory
Saturday, March 14

As You Like It by Shakespeare
Saturday, April 18

Reception 6:15pm Mago Hunt Lobby
Panel 6:45pm Mago Hunt Recital Hall

Play 7:30pm Main Stage

For play tickets:
Mago Hunt Box Office 503-943-7287

Thirst Friday

This popular social is open to all staff and faculty. Enjoy wine, laughter and great conversation!

Friday, February 7 & April 24

4-6pm, Franz Hall 330

Faith & Intellectual Life Discussion

All readings are posted at
up.edu/garaventa/fildg

Friday, January 31 & April 3

3:30-5:00pm

Held in Murphy Conference Room,
Fourth Floor Franz Hall