Important Notes

- The severity of sanction is not considered a legitimate ground for a case review.
- Case review requests must be submitted by the student. Third party requests will not be accepted.
- Failure to submit a case review request within three (3) business days of being informed of the original decision will render the original decision final.

The following items must be attached to this form:

- Written statement of request detailing the specifics of why you believe your request meets the criteria for review.
- All supporting documents as indicated above. References to documents and/or information that is not attached will not be considered.

Submit this form, your written statement request, and supporting documentation to:
